

there are people who care and will try to make a difference for girls from the worldwide community

Thinking of you, stay strong, be true to yourself

We constantly send messages of love and support. You are not alone, we will support you

There are people who care about you

You don't deserve to be abused, treated badly or threatened

You are always in my prayers you are safe and protected by the right caring people to guide you into the next chapter of your life, one that i hope delivers happiness, joy laughter and safety. A singing bird is not a singing bird unless it is free to fly

There is hope, stay safe

I think of you often from the other side of the world. You are wonderful

May love grow and not hate

You are a beautiful creature, believe in a Bright Future

You are strong, brave inspirational women

I hope and pray that everything shall be better for you all, please be confident

Women are the power we need to help us all grow up

One day soon the world will feel lighter. Kindness and hope from strangers will make you feel whole again.

We are all trying to help, stay strong, tomorrow is a new day.

I support your freedom and right to food, safety and education

To all brave & beautiful survivors
